SOLVERE COACHING STRATEGY

We educate you on how to find your own property.

We take you through the buyer process step by step, from start to finish.

We design a specific 8 Point Strategy for your situation to ensure that this purchase will be best suited to your financial situation, which will include location, yield, and type of property.

This service was developed for someone that has the time and confidence to go and find their own property but lacks the knowledge of where to look and what they might need for their financial situation.
